2. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.
3. Claim 26 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter.
  - A. For a method/process to be statutory under § 101, it must pass the machine or transformation (M or T) test to determine whether the claim is directed wholly to a judicial exception (ineligible) or to a particular practical application of a judicial exception (eligible).
  - B. As per claim 26, the claim is directed to a method (process) comprising the steps of inputting ..., creating ..., and creating ... The claim does not require that the method steps be implemented by a particular machine nor does the claim require that the method particularly transform a particular article into a different state or thing. Since claim 26 does not meet either prong of the M or T test for eligible subject matter, claim 26 is rejected as being directed to non-statutory subject matter.
4. Claims 15-25 and 27 are allowed.
